

ATTENTION all DADS and MALE Caregivers in the St Paul Community

What is Shed Men?

All Dads and male caregivers in the St Paul Community are invited to Shed Men. This is not an official St Paul school event, but rather a casual gathering of St Paul Dads/men at a different bloke's house on the first Friday evening of the month during school terms.

It would be great to meet some of the new Dads and significant males to the school and equally great to meet some of the old Dads/men too!

BYO a few of your favourite throat lubricants (drinks), some meat for the BBQ (no salad permitted) and come and have a laugh and share a yarn with other Dads/men from the school.

Please come along and give it a try. All Dads/men are welcome!
